Dear Friends,

December 2018

Please join the Clinton Symphony, under the baton of Music Director Charles Schneider, on January 20, 2019 at 2:30 p.m. for a concert of orchestral and operatic music. This concert, held at the Clinton Central Schools Theatre, will feature soprano Kathleen O'Mara and baritone Gregory Feldman masters students in Vocal Performance at the renowned Juilliard School of Music. Our program will consist of operatic favorites from a range of styles covering three centuries, as well as music composed by Clinton natives Ben Moore and Ben Phelps. Be sure to also join us for Maestro Schneider's free pre-concert lecture at 1:30 p.m. We hope to see you there.

Sincerely yours,

Roger Moore, President

P.S. The Charles Winter Family Fund has most generously provided funds for students to attend free of charge.
